ADVENTURE

Located in the heart of the Kanto region, Takasaki City is easily accessed by a one-hour shinkansen trip from Tokyo, Niigata and Nagano. The Kanetsu, Joshisu and Kita-Kanto expressways also merge at Takasaki and Fujijoka Junctions making access by car easy too. The city is blessed with many rich natural environments and is an attractive destination for active people who enjoy outdoor adventure. Activities include Paragliding on the slopes of Mt. Haruna from where you can view the whole Kanto Plain, Abseiling down waterfalls and Hiking on the numerous mountain trails in the region. With an altitude of 1,100 metres above sea level, the Lake Haruna is an ideal location for many outdoor activities and an escape from the hot summer months of the Kanto region. Takasaki City also has three camp sites to experience camping and BBQ’s in the great outdoors with family and friends.

AFTER FIVE

Takasaki is a bustling city with plenty of pubs, bars, shops, restaurants, izakaya and yatai to keep you entertained After Five where you can experience the tastes and cultures of various different countries. You can enjoy delicious dishes and drinks while chatting with your friends and listening to good music. And of course there are endless opportunities to make new friends too. We will introduce you to our favorite spots in the After Five section.
Haruna Adventures

Haruna Adventures is a camp dedicated to outdoor adventures and operated by Patrik Spohn, a German national living in Takasaki, and is ideal for couples, families with kids and pets, and groups of up to 50 people. With many outdoor activities, you can enjoy freedom, nature, and adrenaline of up to 50-meter abseils down waterfalls and bridges, surrounded by spectacular scenery. Participants begin on a practice slope, work up to a 5-meter wall, and finish with a final descent down a tree-lined mountainside. Other activities include flying Fox and River Trekking during golden season (April - November), and snowmobile tours during white season (January - March). At the end of the day after finishing your activities, you can enjoy a relaxing time at the campsite, hidden away in the dense forest of Mt. Haruna. It is possible to sleep over in one of the on-site Cozy Cabins. Restrooms and hot showers are also available.

Breakfast, lunch, and BBQ dinners are offered at reasonable prices or if you prefer, you can bring your own food. There is no better way to recharge your batteries from a demanding business schedule than by barbecuing and partying the night away around a campfire. Special events include parties in the woods during full-moon weekends where you can dance the night away with kamishibai in the nature or just chill out in a hammock.

Haruna Paragliding Park

Haruna Paragliding Park is located on the side of Mount Haruna. No advance experience is required to try out this exhilarating activity. A short lesson at the clubhouse where you are strapped into a swing hung from the ceiling is all that is required. No special gear is required but you should dress normally and wear long pants. Once you are finished the initiation lesson, you are driven up to the starting point, which is located 320 meters above the landing area. You will be strapped in front of your instructor and parachute and are ready for your tandem jump. In the air you will circle the area, and if the winds are good you will get high enough to rise above Lake Haruna and have a magnificent 360 panoramic view all around you.

The instructor will take care of you all the way, and all that is required of you is a simple running action, when you are coming into land. Guaranteed that once you do this, you will want to go straight back up again for another jump. Morning hours are ideal on any day of the week before the winds get stronger.

If the bug bites you, then PGP offers various memberships so you can come back for more jumps on a regular basis without hurting your wallet too much.

Haruna Jinja (Haruna Shrine) is a Shinto shrine located on the slopes of Mount Haruna about 2km southwest of Lake Haruna. Mount Haruna is one of the “Three Mountains of Jomo” and the shrine has a close relationship with the shrines of Mount Akagi and Mount Myogi, the other two mountains of Jomo.

With a history of approximately 1,400 years, Mount Haruna is believed to be the home of God of Water, Fire and Agriculture. The rainfall brought by the clouds bringing Thunder and Lightning to Mount Haruna blesses the harvest in the fields below. The Gods also give blessings for world peace, rich grain harvests, successful business and marriage. It is said to be the central shrine of ancient mountain worship around this area.

Surrounded by ancient cedar trees the grounds are filled with a tranquil and divine atmosphere. As you walk along the 700-meter scenic route in this 15-hectare site to the main Shrine you pass by the Shrine’s historic buildings; the Seven Gods of Good Fortune and a giant tree said to be between 600 and 1,000 years old. The six historic buildings are a designated National Cultural Heritage Site.

Shorinzan Daruma Temple in Takasaki can be visited all year round, however the highlight of the year takes place on January 6 and 7 with Japan's largest and most famous Daruma Market (Daruma Ichij) where an estimated 300,000 people visit over the two day period. The paper mache Daruma Doll is a good luck charm and represents a famous Zen Monk.

Daruma dolls are traditionally bought at the beginning of the year with the eye pupils blank. A wish is made and one of the pupils is painted in. If the wish comes true the second pupil is painted in, and at the end of the year the Daruma doll is returned to the temple to be burnt.

At the entrance of the Daruma Ichij Market there is a large tent where the Daruma Dolls are returned to be burnt at a late date. From there you walk up the stone stairs which is lit up by bright lanterns on both sides. At the main temple you offer a coin and make a wish for the coming year. From there on you pass through the hundreds of vendors where you haggle the price of your new daruma doll. The descent on the narrow road outside the temple is a spectacle in itself too, with the hundreds of food stalls where you can buy a huge variety of foods and drinks and make merry with your new Daruma doll.

Lake Haruna (Harunako)

Mount Haruna is a caldera volcano, and is located about 30 km from Tashikamigata City. It is one of the Gunma’s “Three Mountains of Jomo”, along with Mount Akagi and Myogi. The last eruption reportedly took place in the early 6th century.

Mount Haruna-Fuji is located in the center of the caldera, and is so called because if its similarity in shape to Mount Fuji. The 1,391-meter mountain can be scaled by taking the many hiking trails maintained along the outer rim of the caldera. A rope way is also available that allows visitors to easily reach the peak, from which one can enjoy the panoramic surrounding landscape.

Lake Haruna is a crater located to the west of the caldera with an altitude of close to 1,100 meters and brings cool summer days. Lake Haruna is popular in the summer months and the Haruna Auto Camp is open throughout this season. There are also several Japanese style ryokans and hotels available for those who prefer regular accommodation.

Reflections of the colors of the cherry trees, azaleas, day lilies, autumnal foliage and changing seasons can be enjoyed on the lake particularly between April and September. Tall dense waterweeds grow in the lake, and it is said that the souls of those who have drowned there will never come back.

Row boats and Paddle Boats are available for rental by the lake and rides are possible on the stylish Swan Boats that grace the lake. Speed boat rides are also available on the lake. Other attractions include Go Cart Racing, Horse Riding, Horse Pull Carriage and Tennis. Regular Bicycle rental is available, while the two and three-seater bicycles are popular with families who want to ride around the lake. At the Visitor Center you can see how the mountain has developed over the centuries and stuffed samples of all the variety of birds and animals that are in the area.

The Haruna area is also known as the biggest fruit production region in Gunma prefecture with the largest output of plums in eastern Japan. Other well known fruits from the area include peaches and pears. This lake freezes up in winter, so we can enjoy Wakaaga (Smelt) ice-fishing and skating on the ice, and spectacular illumination Festa can also be enjoyed during the winter season.
Haruna Melody Road

Located on the road to Lake Haruna from the Ikaho Onsen area you find one of Japan’s famous Melody Roads. This is a stretch of road with strategically spaced grooves and depending on the depth and cut of the groove, it can be arranged to make sounds from car tyres running over them. For optimum performance is best to drive along this stretch of road at approximately 50km/h to hear the Japanese tune of “Shizuka na Kohan” (Quiet Road) at normal speed. Be sure to roll down your windows to enjoy the music at its best.

Tamachi-yatai-dori 田町屋台通り

The ‘Yatai-mura’ (literally ‘yatai’ village) truly brings the best of what Takasaki has to offer to those looking for a good and truly unique night out. It is, in sort, the very heart of Takasaki’s nightlife.

Composed of many different ‘Yatai’ - small food stands – the Yatai-mura is an eclectic gourmet experience that somehow, charmingly works together. Pretty much all delicacies that Takasaki has in store, including unique and delicious cocktails, are offered in a warm and friendly atmosphere.

From food-stand to food-stand, the atmosphere vary from classy to downright wild; in fact the party often goes beyond the limited seats of each stand and overflows in the communal area outside. Cheersful owners and friendly locals are guaranteed to start a conversation with any foreigners willing to share a drink (or two!)

The most unforgettable nights always start at the Yatai-mura; so don’t be shy, take a seat, and be sure not to miss Takasaki’s most original place!
